1 Sub-section (4) was omitted by section 7 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 1993 (Act No. XX of 1993).
2 The words “or nomination” were omitted by section 7 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 1993 (Act No. XX of 1993).
3 The words “Deputy Commissioner” were substituted for the words and comma “Chairman of the Upazila Parishad or Thana Parishad, as the case may be” by section 3 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 1988 (Act No. XL of 1988).
14. (1) Where the office of Chairman or a member becomes vacant not later than one hundred and eighty days before the term of the Union Parishad is due to expire, an election to fill the office shall be held within sixty days of the occurrence of the vacancy, and the person who is elected in such election shall hold office for the residue of such term:

Provided that if no election is held within sixty days, the Election Commission may fix a day to hold such election.

(2) While the office of Chairman is vacant, the functions of the office shall be performed by the Acting Chairman referred to in section 16.

15. A Union Parishad may grant leave of absence to its Chairman for any period not exceeding three months in any one year.

16. (1) If a vacancy occurs in the office of Chairman or if the Chairman is unable to discharge the functions of his office on account of absence, illness or any other cause, a member elected by the Union Parishad under sub-section (1A) from amongst the members shall act as Acting Chairman until a new Chairman elected to fill such vacancy enters upon his office or until the Chairman resumes the functions of his office, as the case may be.

(1A) An election of Acting Chairman shall be held in such manner as may be directed by the Government.]
(2) At any time when the Acting Chairman is unable to discharge the functions of his office on account of absence, illness or any other cause, another member elected by the Union Parishad from amongst the ¹[* * *] members shall act as Acting Chairman until a new Chairman elected to fill such vacancy enters upon his office or until the Acting Chairman resumes the functions of his office, as the case may be.

17. An election, ²[* * *] resignation, removal or vacation of office of a Chairman or member shall be notified in the official Gazette by the Government or any other authority as the Government may direct.

³[17A. (1)] Where any portion of a union has been declared an urban area and included in a municipality under the Paurashava Ordinance, 1977 (XXVI of 1977), the Union Parishad of the union may, if necessary, notwithstanding anything contained in this Ordinance, be reconstituted in such manner as the Government may direct and a Union Parishad so reconstituted shall continue to function till a Union Parishad is constituted in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the Government may, instead of reconstituting a Union Parishad, appoint an Administrator to perform the functions of the Union Parishad till a Union Parishad is constituted in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

(3) Where an Administrator is appointed under this section,-

(a) the Chairman and members of the Union Parishad shall cease to hold office;

(b) the Government may appoint a Committee consisting of such number of members as it deems fit to assist the Administrator in the discharge of his functions.

¹ The word “elected” was omitted by section 9 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 1993 (Act No. XX of 1993).

² The word and comma “nomination,” was omitted by section 10 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 1993 (Act No. XX of 1993).

³ Section 17A was inserted by section 3 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Second Amendment) Ordinance, 1984 (Ordinance No. LXXVII of 1984).
(4) The Administrator and the members of the Committee, if any, shall respectively exercise the powers of the Chairman and Members of the Union Parishad.

(5) The Government may make such orders regarding the staff and the assets and liabilities of the Union Parishad reconstituted under this section as it may deem fit.]

(j) registration of births, deaths, blinds, beggars and destitutes;

(k) conducting of census of all kinds.

31. (1) The Government may establish a village police force in such rural areas as may be notified from time to time, and may by rules regulate the appointment, the training and discipline and the terms and conditions of service of the members of such police force.

1 Clause (e) was omitted by section 4 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 1988 (Act No. XL of 1988).

2 The words “Thana Nirbahi Officer” were substituted for the words and commas “Upazila Parishad or Thana Parishad, as the case may be,” by section 18 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 1993 (Act No. XX of 1993).
(2) The village police shall exercise such powers and discharge such duties as are specified in Part II of the First Schedule.

(3) Where the Deputy Commissioner is of the opinion that in any union or a part thereof, special measures are required to secure village defence or public security, he may, by order, require, that all or any of the able-bodied adult male inhabitants of the union or such part thereof shall be liable to patrol duty for such period and in such manner as may be specified in the order.

(4) Where an order is made under sub-section (3), the Union Parishad shall exercise such powers and discharge such duties as may be specified in the order.

32. (1) It shall be the duty of the Chairman-

(a) to assist village revenue officials in the union, by whatever name called or howsoever designated, in the proper performance of their duties with regard to the collection of rent or land development tax and the general administration;

(b) to render such assistance in the preparation of records and assessments, and in the work of survey or crop inspection, and of other branches of revenue administration in the union as the Deputy Commissioner may require;

(c) to report to the police the commission of any offence, to bring to the notice of the police the presence in the union of persons of notorious character, and to assist in the investigation and prevention of crime, and in arresting criminals;

(d) to report to competent authority all cases of damage to or encroachments upon any public road, street or way, or any public place, building or property;

(e) to publicise in the union all matters the publicity of which is required by the Government or other competent authority; and

(f) to assist officials in the execution of their official duties, and to furnish such information as may be required by them for official purposes.
(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be construed as authorising the Chairman to interfere in the performance by any official of his official duties.

33. (1) A Union Parishad shall be responsible for agricultural, industrial and community development in the union, and may, for that purpose, perform such functions as may be prescribed.

(2) A Union Parishad may, for the purposes of rural development, adopt such measures and perform such functions as may be prescribed.

34. Every Union Parishad may appoint one of its members, or, if the circumstances so require, any other person to be in charge of promoting public games, sports and cultural activities.

35. Notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance or in any other law for the time being in force, the Government may from time to time direct that, subject to such terms and conditions as may be specified in the direction,-

(a) any institution or service maintained by a Union Parishad shall be transferred to the management and control of the Government or [any other authority]; and

(b) any institution or service maintained by the Government or [any other authority] shall be transferred to the management and control of a Union Parishad.

36. (1) The executive powers of a Union Parishad shall extend to the doing of all acts necessary for the due discharge of its functions under this Ordinance.

1 The words “any other authority” were substituted for the words and comma “Upazila Parishad or Thana Parishad, as the case may be” by section 19 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 1993 (Act No. XX of 1993).

4 Sub-section (1A) was inserted by section 2 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 2001 (Act No. XXI of 2001).
[(3) A Standing Committee shall elect one of its members, other than a co-opted member to be its Chairman and another such member to be its Vice-Chairman:

Provided that one-fourth of the total number of Chairmen of the Standing Committees shall, subject to the availability of candidate, be elected from amongst the members elected in reserved seats:

Provided further that where any office of Chairman of any Standing Committee within the number aforesaid can not be filled in by a member elected in reserved seat for any reason whatsoever, the office of Vice-Chairman of that Standing Committee shall be filled in by election of a member elected in reserved seat.]

(4) A Union Parishad may co-opt a person of either sex who is not a member of the Parishad but who may, in the opinion of the Parishad, possess special qualifications for serving on any Standing Committee; and such member shall not have any right to vote at meetings of the Standing Committee, but shall be deemed to be member thereof for all other purposes.]

2[38A. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 38, there shall be a Committee to be called the Samaj Unnayan Committee in every ward for a reserved seat consisting of the member of that reserved seat, who shall also be its Chairman, and the members representing the wards of general seats regrouped for delimitation of that reserved seat under section 20A.]

39. (1) All contracts made by or on behalf of a Union Parishad shall be-

(a) in writing and expressed to be made in the name of the Union Parishad;

1 Sub-section (3) was substituted by section 2 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 2001 (Act No. XXI of 2001).

2 Section 38A was inserted by section 3 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 2001 (Act No. XXI of 2001).
(b) executed in such manner as may be prescribed; and
(c) reported to the Union Parishad by the Chairman at the meeting next following the execution of the contract.

(2) A Union Parishad may, by resolution, lay down the procedure that shall regulate the making of various contracts, and in the execution of contracts, the Chairman shall act in accordance with such resolution.

(3) No contract executed otherwise than in conformity with the provisions of this section shall be binding on the Union Parishad.

40. The Government may, by rules, provide for-

(a) the preparation of plans and estimates for works to be executed by a Union Parishad;

(b) the authority by whom and the conditions subject to which such plans and estimates shall be technically approved and administratively sanctioned; and

(c) the agency by which such plans and estimates shall be prepared and such works shall be executed.

41. A Union Parishad shall-

(a) maintain such records of its working as may be prescribed;

(b) prepare and publish such periodical reports and returns as may be prescribed; and

(c) adopt such other measures as may be necessary, or may be specified by the Government from time to time, for the publication of information about the working of the Union Parishad.

42. A Union Parishad may appoint such officers and employees as it deems necessary to assist it in the discharge of its functions on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.
43. (1) For every Union Parishad there shall be formed a fund which shall be known as the Union Fund.

(2) To the credit of a Union Fund formed under sub-section (1) shall be placed-

(a) the balance of such fund as on the coming into force of this Ordinance is at the disposal of the Union Parishad of which the Union Parishad concerned is the successor;

(b) the proceeds of all taxes, rates, fees and other charges levied by the Union Parishad under this Ordinance;

(c) all rents and profits payable or accruing to the Union Parishad from the property vested in or managed by the Union Parishad;

(d) all sums received by the Union Parishad in the performance of its functions under this Ordinance or under any other law for the time being in force;

(e) all sums contributed by individuals or institutions or by any local authority;

(f) all receipts accruing from the trusts placed under the management of the Union Parishad;

(g) all grants made by the Government and other authorities;

(h) all profits accruing from investments; and

(i) such proceeds from such sources of income as the Government may direct to be placed at the disposal of the Union Parishad.

44. (1) The moneys credited to a Union Fund shall be kept in a Government treasury, or in a bank transacting the business of a Government treasury, or in such other manner as may be specified by the Government from time to time.

(2) A Union Parishad may invest any portion of the Union Fund in such manner as may be prescribed.
(3) A Union Parishad may, and if required by the Government, shall, establish and maintain a separate fund for any special purpose, which shall be administered and regulated in such manner as may be prescribed.

45. The moneys from time to time credited to a Union Fund shall be applied in the following order of preference:-

firstly, in the payment of salaries and allowances to the officers and employees of the Union Parishad;

secondly, in meeting the expenditure charged on the Union Fund under this Ordinance;

thirdly, in the fulfilment of any obligation and in the discharge of any duty imposed on a Union Parishad under this Ordinance or under any other law for the time being in force;

fourthly, in meeting the expenditure declared by the Union Parishad with the previous sanction of the 1[Deputy Commissioner] to be an appropriate charge on the Union Fund; and fifthly, in meeting the expenditure declared by the Government to be an appropriate charge on a Union Fund.

46. (1) The following expenditure shall be charged on a Union Fund, namely:

(a) all sums to be paid to, or in connection with employment of, any Government servant who is or has been in the service of a Union Parishad;

(b) such sums as the Union Parishad may be required by the Government to contribute towards the conduct of elections, the auditing of accounts and such other matters as may, from time to time, be specified by the Government;

1 The words “Deputy Commissioner” were substituted for the words and commas “Upazila Parishad or the Thana Parishad, as the case may be,” by section 5 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 1988 (Act No. XL of 1988).
(c) any sum required to satisfy any judgement, decree or award against the Union Parishad by any Court or tribunal; and

(d) any expenditure declared by the Government to be so charged.

(2) If any expenditure charged on a Union Fund is not paid, the Government may, by order, direct the person or persons having the custody of the Union Fund to pay such amount, or so much thereof as may, from time to time, be possible, from the balance of the Union Fund.

Budget

47. (1) Every Union Parishad shall, in the prescribed manner, prepare before the commencement of each financial year, a statement of its estimated receipts and expenditure for that year, hereinafter referred to as the budget, and send it to the [Deputy Commissioner] for approval.

(2) If the budget is not prepared by a Union Parishad before the commencement of any financial year, the [Deputy Commissioner] may have the necessary statement prepared and certify it, and such certified statement shall be deemed to be the sanctioned budget of the Union Parishad.

(3) Within thirty days of the receipt of the copy of a budget under sub-section (1), the [Deputy Commissioner] may, by order, modify it, and the budget so modified shall be deemed to be the sanctioned budget of the Union Parishad.

(4) If the budget received under sub-section (1) is not modified or approved within thirty days by the [Deputy Commissioner] it shall be deemed to have been approved.

1 The words “Deputy Commissioner” were substituted for the words and commas “Upazila Parishad or the Thana Parishad, as the case may be,” by section 6 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 1988 (Act No. XL of 1988).

(3) On the completion of audit, the audit authority shall submit to the ¹Deputy Commissioner] an audit report which shall, among other things, mention-

(a) cases of embezzlement;

(b) cases of loss, waste or misapplication of the Union Fund;

(c) cases of other irregularities in the maintenance of accounts; and

(d) the names of the persons who, in its opinion, are directly or indirectly responsible for such embezzlement, loss, waste, misapplication or irregularities.

50. (1) The Government may, by rules-

(a) provide for the management, maintenance, improvement and development of the property belonging to or vesting in Union Parishad;

(b) regulate the alienation of such property; and

(c) provide for the compulsory acquisition of such immovable property as may be required by a Union Parishad for the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) A Union Parishad may-

(a) manage, maintain, inspect, develop or improve any property which is owned by or vests in it or which is placed under its charge;

(b) apply such property for the purposes of this Ordinance or the rules; and

(c) acquire or transfer by grant, gift, sale, mortgage, lease, exchange or otherwise any property.

51. (1) A Union Parishad may, and if so required by the Government, shall, prepare and implement development plans for such periods as may be specified.

¹ The words “Deputy Commissioner” were substituted for the words and commas “Upazila Parishad or the Thana Parishad, as the case may be,” by section 8 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 1988 (Act No. XL of 1988).
(2) Such plans shall be subject to the approval of the [Deputy Commissioner] and shall provide for-

(a) the manner in which the plans shall be financed, executed, implemented and supervised;

(b) the agency through which the plans shall be executed and implemented; and

(c) such other matters as may be necessary.

(3) The Government may direct that any specified item of income of a Union Parishad shall wholly or in part be earmarked for and applied in the implementation of a development plan.

52. Every Chairman, member, officer or employee of a Union Parishad, and every person charged with the administration of the affairs of a Union Parishad, or acting on behalf of a Union Parishad, shall be liable for the loss, waste or misapplication of any money or property belonging to the Union Parishad, which is a direct consequence of his negligence or misconduct, and the liability of such Chairman, member, officer, employee or person shall be determined by the Government in the prescribed manner, and the amount for which he is held liable shall be recoverable as a public demand.

53. A Union Parishad, with the previous sanction of the [Deputy Commissioner] may levy, in the prescribed manner, all or any of the taxes, rates and fees mentioned in the Second Schedule.

54. (1) All taxes, rates and fees levied by a Union Parishad shall be notified in the prescribed manner, and shall, unless otherwise directed by the Government, be subject to previous publication.

1 The words “Deputy Commissioner” were substituted for the words and commas “Upazila Parishad or Thana Parishad, as the case may be,” by section 22 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 1993 (Act No. XX of 1993).

(2) Where a proposal for a levy of a tax, rate or fee, or for the modification of tax, rate or fee, which is enforced, is sanctioned, the sanctioning authority shall specify the date for the enforcement thereof, and such tax, rate or fee or the modification shall come into force on such date.

55. The Government may frame model tax schedules and, where such schedules have been framed, the Union Parishads shall be guided by them in levying a tax, rate or fee.

56. (1) A Union Parishad may, by notice, call upon any person to furnish such information, produce such records or accounts liable to any tax, rate or fee, as may be necessary for the purpose of determining the liability of such person to a tax, rate or fee, or the assessment thereof.

(2) Any member or official of a Union Parishad authorised in this behalf may, after due notice, enter upon any building or premises for the purpose of assessing the liability of such building or premises to any rate.

57. (1) Unless otherwise provided, all taxes, rates and fees levied under this Ordinance shall be collected by such person and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) All arrears of taxes, rates and fees and other moneys claimable by a Union Parishad under this Ordinance shall be recoverable as a public demand.

(3) Any member or official of a Union Parishad authorised in this behalf may, in the prescribed manner, seize and dispose of any goods for the purpose of recovery of arrears of tax, rate or fee.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (2), the Government may empower any Union Parishad to recover arrears of taxes, rates, fees and other moneys claimable by the Union Parishad under this Ordinance by distress and sale of the movable property belonging to the person concerned, or by attachment and sale of the immovable property belonging to him.
(5) The Government may, by rules, specify the official or classes of officials by whom the power under sub-section (4) shall be exercised, and prescribe the manner in which it shall be exercised.

58. No assessment of a tax, rate or fee under this Ordinance, or valuation therefore, or the liability of a person to be so taxed, shall be called in question except by a petition presented to such authority, in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed.

59. (1) All taxes, rates, fees and other charges levied by Union Parishad shall be imposed, assessed, leased, compounded, administered and regulated in such manner as may be provided by rules.

(2) Rules made under this section may, among other matters, provide for the obligations of the tax-payers and the duties and powers of the officials and other agencies responsible for the assessment and collection of taxes.

60. The Government shall exercise general supervision and control over the Union Parishads in order to ensure that their activities conform to the purposes of this Ordinance.

61. If, in the opinion of the Government, anything done or intended to be done by or on behalf of a Union Parishad is not in conformity with law, or is in any way against public interest, the Government may, by order,-

(a) quash the proceedings;
(b) suspend the execution of any resolution passed or order made by the Union Parishad;
(c) prohibit the doing of anything proposed to be done; and
(d) require the Union Parishad to take such action as may be specified.

62. (1) The Government may direct any Union Parishad, or any person or authority responsible thereto, to take, within such period as may be specified, such action as may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Ordinance.
(2) Where after due enquiry the Government is satisfied that a Union Parishad or person or authority has failed to comply with any direction made under sub-section (1), the Government may appoint a person or persons to give effect to such direction, and may further direct that the expenses incurred in connection therewith shall be borne by the Union Parishad.

(3) Should the expenses be not so paid, the Government may make an order directing the person having the custody of the balance of the Union Fund to pay the expense, or so much thereof as may from time to time be possible.

63. (1) The Government may either suo motu or on an application made to it by any person, cause an enquiry to be made by such officer as may be authorised by it in this behalf, into the affairs of a Union Parishad generally, or into any particular matter concerning a Union Parishad and take such remedial measures as may be warranted by the findings of such enquiry.

(2) Such officer shall, for the purposes of the enquiry, have the powers of a Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908) to take evidence and to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents.

64. (1) If, after such enquiry as may be necessary, the Government is of the opinion that a Union Parishad-

(a) is unable to discharge or persistently fails in discharging its duties, or

(b) is unable to administer its affairs or meet its financial obligation, or

(c) generally acts in a manner contrary to public interests, or

(d) otherwise exceeds or abuses its powers,

the Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare the Union Parishad to be superseded for such period, not exceeding the residue of the term of such Union Parishad, as may be specified:
Provided that the Government shall, before making an order under this section give the Parishad an opportunity of showing cause why such order should not be made.

(2) On the publication of a notification under sub-section (1), -

(a) persons holding office as Chairman and members shall cease to hold office;

(b) all functions of the Union Parishad shall, during the period of supersession be performed by such person or authority as the Government may appoint in this behalf; and

(c) all funds and property belonging to the Union Parishad shall, during the period of supersession, vest in the Government.

(3) On the expiry of the period of supersession, the Union Parishad shall be reconstituted in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance and the rules.

65. (1) Where any proceedings have been initiated for the removal of the Chairman under section 12 or where any criminal proceedings under any law have been started against such Chairman or where on an enquiry by the Government, he is found to be guilty of any misconduct within the meaning of section 12(1) and in the opinion of the Government, the exercise of power by him as Chairman is either likely to be prejudicial to the interest of the Union Parishad or undesirable from the point of view of public interest, the Government may, by order in writing, place such Chairman under suspension; and during the period of suspension, an Acting Chairman elected in accordance with the provisions of section 16 shall discharge the functions of the Chairman until the termination of the proceedings or, in the event of the Chairman being removed as a result of such proceedings, or until the suspension is withdrawn or until a new Chairman is elected for the Union Parishad.

(2) When an order of suspension has been made under sub-section (1), the Chairman shall, not later than three days from the date of communication of the order, make over charge of his office to the Acting Chairman to discharge the functions of the Chairman.
(3) A member may be suspended from his office on any ground as mentioned in section 12(1) if, at a special meeting of the Parishad called for the purpose, a resolution to the effect that he is liable to be so suspended is passed by the votes of not less than three-fourths of the total number of members:

Provided that no such resolution shall be passed unless the member concerned has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the resolution proposed to be passed with respect to him.

(4) No Court shall enquire into or question the validity of any order made under sub-section (1).

66. (1) The Government may set up institutions for the training of the members and staff of Union Parishads, for the promotion of research in local government and allied subjects, and may, by rules, provide:

(a) for the administration of such institutions;

(b) for compulsory training of members and staff;

(c) for the courses to be studied; and

(d) for the holding of examinations and the award of diplomas and certificates to successful candidates.

(2) Every Union Parishad shall pay towards the cost of the institutions set up under sub-section (1) in such proportion as the Government may from time to time determine.

67. Any Union Parishad may join any other Union Parishad or Parishads or any other local authority or authorities, in appointing a joint committee for any purpose in which such Union Parishads or authorities may be jointly interested and may delegate to such joint committee any power which may be exercised by it, including the power to make regulations for the conduct of business.

68. If any dispute arises between two or more Union Parishads, the matter shall be referred to-

(c) the Commissioner, if the parties concerned are in different districts within the same division;

(d) the Government, if the parties concerned are in different divisions; and the decision of the authority to which the dispute is so referred shall be final.

69. Every act or omission specified in the Third Schedule shall be an offence under this Ordinance.

70. An offence under this Ordinance shall be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand Taka, and if the offence is a continuing one, with a further fine which may extend to twenty-five Taka for every day after the date of the first commission during which period the offender has persisted in the offence.

71. The Chairman or any person generally or specially authorised by the Union Parishad in this behalf may compound any offence under this Ordinance.

72. No Court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Ordinance except on a complaint in writing received from the Chairman or a person generally or specially authorised by the Union Parishad in this behalf.

73. (1) No person shall make an encroachment, movable or immovable, on, over or under a public way, public street, public road or public place.

(2) Subject to regulations, a Union Parishad may, by notice, require the person responsible for any such encroachment to remove the same within such period as may be specified, and if the encroachment is not removed within such period, the Union Parishad may cause the encroachment to be removed through its own agency; and the cost incurred thereon by the Union Parishad shall be deemed to be a tax levied on the person responsible for the encroachment under this Ordinance.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, no compensation shall be payable for any encroachment removed or required to be removed under this section.

Appeals

74. (1) Any person aggrieved by an order passed by a Union Parishad or its Chairman in pursuance of this Ordinance or the rules or regulations may, within thirty days of the passing of the order, appeal to such authority as may be prescribed.

(2) Any order passed in appeal shall be final and shall not be called in question in any Court.

Duties of police

75. It shall be the duty of all police officers to give immediately information to the Chairman concerned of the commission of any offence specified in the Third Schedule and to assist the Chairman, officer, and employee of a Union Parishad in the exercise of their lawful authority.

Standing orders

76. The Government may, by standing orders, issued from time to time,-

(a) define and regulate the relations of the Union Parishads inter se, and with other local authorities;

(b) provide for co-ordinating the activities of Union Parishads and the Government authorities;

(c) provide for giving financial assistance to Union Parishads, including the making of grants for specified purposes on specified terms and conditions;

(d) provide for the making of financial contributions by one Union Parishad to another Union Parishad or to any other local authority; and

(e) provide for the general guidance of Union Parishads in carrying out the purposes of this Ordinance.

Delegation of powers

77. (1) The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, delegate any of its powers under this Ordinance or the rules to a Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner, or any other officer subordinate to him or to any other person or authority.
(2) A Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner may, with the previous approval of the Government, delegate any of his powers under this Ordinance or the rules, not being powers delegated to him under sub-section (1), to any officer subordinate to him or to any other person or authority.

78. No suit shall be instituted against a Union Parishad or against any member, officer or employee of a Union Parishad in respect of any act done or purporting to be done in official capacity, until the expiration of one month next after notice in writing has been, in the case of a Union Parishad, delivered or left at its office, and in the case of a member, officer or employee, delivered to him or left at his office or place of abode, stating the cause of action and the name and place of abode of the intending plaintiff, and the plaint shall contain a statement that such notice has been delivered or left.

79. (1) Where anything is required to be done or not to be done by any person under this Ordinance or the rules or the regulations, a notice shall be served on the person concerned specifying the time within which the requirement shall be complied with.

(2) No notice shall be invalid for defect of form.

(3) Every notice shall, unless otherwise provided, be served or presented by giving or tendering the notice or sending it by post to the person for whom it is intended or by affixing it on some conspicuous part of his place of abode or business.

(4) A notice intended for the public in general shall be deemed to have been sufficiently served if a copy thereof is affixed in such public place as may be determined by the Union Parishad concerned.

80. All records prepared or registers maintained under this Ordinance shall be deemed to be public documents within the meaning of the Evidence Act, 1872 (I of 1872), and shall be presumed to be genuine until the contrary is proved.

81. Every Chairman, member, officer and employee of a Union Parishad, and every other person duly empowered to act on behalf of a Union Parishad, shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Penal Code (XLV of 1860).
82. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against the Government or any Union Parishad or against any person authorised by either, for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Ordinance or the rules or regulations, or for any damage caused or likely to be caused by any such thing.

83. (1) The Government may make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely: -

(a) election of Chairman and elected members and all matters relating thereto;

(b) powers and duties of Chairmen and members;

(c) regulation of the functions of Union Parishads with regard to village police including the appointment, terms and conditions and training and discipline of members of the village police;

(d) functions of Union Parishads with regard to agricultural, industrial and community development, and food production;

(e) regulation of making of contracts on behalf of Union Parishads;

(f) regulation of the execution of works by Union Parishads;

(g) prescription of records, reports and returns to be maintained, prepared or published by Union Parishads;

(h) appointment and terms and conditions of service of officers and employees of Union Parishads;

(i) administration, regulation, custody, investment and operation of Union Funds and special funds;

(j) preparation and sanction of budgets and all matters relating thereto;
(k) maintenance of accounts and their audit;
(l) matters relating to management, maintenance and alienation of property of Union Parishads;
(m) preparation, regulation, consolidation, sanction and implementation of development plans;
(n) manner in which the liabilities of officers and employees of Union Parishads and other persons for any loss, waste or misapplication of any money or property belonging to a Union Parishad may be determined;
(o) regulation of assessment, collection and administration of taxes, rates and fees and all matters relating thereto;
(p) manner in which, and the authorities to whom, appeal shall lie against the orders of Union Parishads;
(q) manner in which Union Parishads shall be inspected, and the powers of inspecting officials; and
(r) any other matter required under any of the provisions of this Ordinance to be prescribed or determined by rules.

84. A Union Parishad may make regulations to provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:-

(a) conduct of business of the Union Parishad;
(b) prescription of quorum;
(c) asking of questions;
(d) requisitioning of meetings;
(e) recording of minutes;
(f) execution of resolutions;
(g) matters relating to Standing Committees and conduct of their business;
(h) custody and use of the common seal;

1 Clause (g) was substituted by section 23 of the Local Government (Union Parishads) (Amendment) Act, 1993 (Act No. XX of 1993).
(i) delegation of powers of the Chairman to any member or officer or employee of the Union Parishad;

(j) organisation of the office of the Union Parishad into departments and branches and definition of the duties of such departments and branches;

(k) registration of births and deaths;

(l) registration of the sale of cattle and animals;

(m) regulation and management of common property;

(n) regulation of burning and burial grounds;

(o) prevention and control of infectious diseases;

(p) prevention of encroachments;

(q) management and regulation of cattle pounds;

(r) any other matter of procedural nature or required under any of the provisions of this Ordinance to be determined by regulations.

85. (1) All rules shall be notified in the official Gazette, and all regulations shall be published in such manner as in the opinion of the Union Parishad making them be best adapted for informing the residents of the union concerned.

(2) All regulations made by a Union Parishad shall be subject to the approval of the Deputy Commissioner.

(3) The Government may frame model regulations and in framing their regulations, the Union Parishads shall be guided by such model regulations.

(4) Copies of rules and regulations pertaining to a Union Parishad shall be kept available at the office of the Union Parishad concerned for inspection and sale.

(5) All rules and regulations when duly made shall be deemed to form parts of this Ordinance, and shall have effect accordingly.
86. Where this Ordinance makes any provision for anything to be done but no provision, or no sufficient provision has been made as respects the authority by whom, or the manner in which, it shall be done, then, it shall be done by such authority and in such manner as may be prescribed.

87. For the purpose of first general elections to Union Parishads under this Ordinance, all the unions in existence immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance shall, unless the Government otherwise directs, be deemed to be unions declared under section 3; and all the wards within the said union shall be deemed to be wards thereof delimited under sections 18, 19 and 20.

88. (1) On the coming into force of this Ordinance, the Local Government Ordinance, 1976 (XC of 1976), hereafter referred to as the said Ordinance, shall, in its application to the Union Parishads, stand repealed.

(2) Upon the repeal of the said Ordinance:

(a) notwithstanding anything contained in this Ordinance, until the Union Parishads are constituted under this Ordinance, the Union Parishads, functioning immediately before such repeal, shall discharge the functions of, and be deemed to be, the Union Parishads constituted under this Ordinance;

(b) all rules, regulations or orders made, notifications or notices issued, or licences or permissions granted under the said Ordinance and in force immediately before such repeal, shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, continue in force and be deemed to have been respectively made, issued or granted under the provisions of this Ordinance until they are repealed or amended under the said provisions;

(c) all assets, rights, powers, authorities and privileges, and all property, movable and immovable, cash and bank balances, funds, investments and all other rights and interests in, or arising out of, such property of the Union Parishads, functioning immediately before such repeal, shall stand transferred to and vest in the successor Union Parishads constituted under this Ordinance;
(d) all debts, obligations and liabilities incurred, all contracts entered into and all matters and things engaged to be done by, with or for the Union Parishads, functioning immediately before such repeal, shall be deemed to have been incurred, entered into or engaged to be done by, with or for the successor Union Parishads constituted under this Ordinance;

(e) all budget estimates, assessments, valuation or plans made by the Union Parishads, functioning immediately before such repeal shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, continue in force and be deemed to have been made under the provisions of this Ordinance by the successor Union Parishads constituted under this Ordinance until they are amended or superseded under the said provisions;

(f) all taxes, rates, fees and sums of money due to the Union Parishads, functioning immediately before such repeal shall be deemed to be due to the successor Union Parishads constituted under this Ordinance;

(g) all taxes, rates, fees and other charges levied by the Union Parishads, functioning immediately before such repeal, shall, until they are varied by the successor Union Parishads constituted under this Ordinance continue to be levied at the same rate at which they were levied by them immediately before such repeal;

(h) all officers and employees of the Union Parishads, functioning immediately before such repeal, shall stand transferred to and become officers or employees of the successor Union Parishads constituted under this Ordinance and shall hold office or service in the successor Union Parishads on the same terms and conditions as were enjoyed by them immediately before such repeal and shall continue to do so until such terms and conditions are duly altered;

(i) all suits, prosecutions and other legal proceedings instituted by or against the Union Parishads, functioning immediately before such repeal, shall be deemed to be suits, prosecutions and proceedings by or against the successor Union Parishads constituted under this Ordinance, and shall be proceeded or otherwise dealt with accordingly.
89. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Government may, by order, do anything which appears to it to be necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiration of two years from the coming into force of this Ordinance.
